We dedicate this book to Miss Kaye Torgerson, who to us, her students and friends, is known as Torgy.

The students who have had Miss Torgerson for either Latin or English know her best as a dedicated teacher.

Those of us who have worked under Torgy's supervision on the Foreign Student Committee or on the Pow-Wow, know her as a very efficient person.

Since she takes pride in work well done, Torgy gives extra help when it is needed. She gives many hours of her spare time to helping make projects like the F. S. Carnival or the school newspaper a success.

Even after we leave W.H.S., our afterthoughts will always include Miss Torgerson.

Thoughts of Homecoming Bring Back Fond Memories

Great anticipation, tears of happiness and shouts of congratulations will long be remembered by Carole Johnson, Homecoming Queen 1963.

Joyce Trask, Miss Brainerd 1963, was mistress of ceremonies. Marjorie Langer, Homecoming Queen 1962, crowned the new queen.

Carole's royal court was made up of Sue Erickson, Mardee Fieldman, Karen St. Marie, Mary Schaefer, Kay Kunde, and Georgia Benson. The escorts were Bob Bahma, "Butch" Dybvick, Gary Brumberg, Charles Cummins, Tom Dahl, Mike Engelhart, Raye Farrar, Tom Fitzsimons, Marty Halvorson, Steve Huff, Steve Harding, Jim Johnson, Ken Kramer, Poul Laursen, Dean Mustonen, and Taney Barclay.

Both the alumni and students were impressed by the colorful parade that followed the coronation and pep fest.

The football team helped make the homecoming a success as they "Make the Gobblers Hobblers" with a score of 28—0.

Following the game, alumni and students danced to the music of the Esquires at the annual dance sponsored by the Student Council.

A beautiful fall day, lovely Queen Carole, and a victorious football team made the 1963 Homecoming an unforgettable experience for both alumni and students.

Adding beauty to the Pow-Wow float are Duane Peterson, Jim Kjelstrup, Mick Toumi, Dan Svendson, and Skip Willis.

Seniors Choose Silver Bells As Their Theme

The excitement of the forthcoming Christmas vacation was climaxed for the seniors by the annual Senior Christmas Banquet.

The theme "Silver Bells," which was carried throughout the evening, started with the song "Silver Bells" being played on the chimes by band member, Paullette Lindberg.

The table decorations and programs also depicted the theme by using pine boughs and large red ribbons enhanced by silver bells.

The meal, which consisted of turkey and dressing, whipped potatoes and all the extra trimmings, was prepared by the school cooks and mothers of the Senior Class members.

Reverend Morris Johnson the guest speaker, honored the seniors with words of inspiration. Senior class president, John Ebinger, served as emcee.

James Saboe read a serious short story telling of Christmas. Bobbie Lee Dalzell played a clarinet solo accompanied by Sue Erickson. Jan Clark, Karen Aase, and Kay Kunde sang two Christmas selections. Led by Mr. Hansen, the senior members of the choir sang a number of Christmas songs for the rest of the seniors, after which all the seniors joined in to sing a few of the old favorites.

Mothers, sons, and daughters all enjoyed decorative tables, delicious cookies and conversation at the tea.

Our Last Formal Gathering

With the year quickly moving to an end, the afternoon of Tuesday, May 14, came as a pleasant rest and leisure time for many of the seniors and their mothers.

The Senior Tea, sponsored by the juniors and prepared by their mothers, was held in the gymnasium which was very attractively decorated with the colors, mint green and white, and carnations in the same colors.

The program, arranged by the juniors, was emceed by Tom Fitzpatrick, who welcomed the seniors and their mothers. John Ebinger, Senior Class president, responded for the Class of 1963. Kay McLeod played a piano solo; Dawn Wilson and Dorothy Larson, accompanied by Louise Kissee, entertained with a clarinet duet; and Kathy Kunkel gave a reading. A vocal trio, Sheri Christensen, Ardys St. Marie, and Marlene Olson, sang and were accompanied by Kay McLeod. Louise Kissee played an alto saxophone solo as the closing number of the program. She was accompanied by Shirley Yde.

Senior Class officers and their mothers' led the way through the serving line. Afterward, the officers' mothers, along with Mrs. J. A. Sater, Miss Shirley, Miss Winters and Miss Larsen, helped to pour. After everyone had been served, a social hour followed.

The hostesses this year were Diane Stafsberg, Susan E. Anderson, Linda Vogt, Connie Marshall, Judy Penhiter, and Tyra Ann Parson. Other servers were Mary Ellen Cheney, Patty Albertson, Jean Larson, Joleen Peterson, Shirley Britton, Roberta Johnson, Mavis Berg, Connie Isle, Jaci Frasl, and Marilyn Brusseau. Several boys assisted too this year.

Mrs. Erickson and Sue represent one of the many of such conversations throughout the afternoon.

Jim Keprios and Steve Peterson were two of the juniors who served and had charge of the program.

A Memorable Evening

The greeting Aloha set the mood for the 1963 Prom-goers. Never before has such "AN EVENING IN THE ISLANDS" been so enjoyed by the students of W.H.S. until this year's Junior-Senior Prom, held on April 26. The prom theme was carried out in various ways. Tall guitar center pieces, an abundance of leis, Hawaiian punch, and Hawaiian costumed servers all helped in giving a very ordinary gym the enchantment of "AN EVENING IN THE ISLANDS."

Couples danced to the mood music of the Night Owls from Little Falls. While dancing, one could almost feel the cool ocean breezes and see the waving palm trees of a true paradise.

Promgoers spend an unforgettable evening dancing to the music of the Night Owls.

In the Tropical Isles

The tropical theme was used in many ways in the entertainment program provided by the Sophomores. The master of ceremonies was Jim Keprios, junior class president.

The Grand March gave all on lookers the chance to view the lovely dresses and handsome attire of the couples. The promenade was led by the class presidents, Jim Keprios and John Ebinger.

After an enchanting "EVENING IN THE ISLANDS," the couples wearily, but reluctantly, left the Prom with many treasured memories.

Election Has a Double Meaning

On November 6, the day that primary elections were taking place, the Junior Class portrayed another election in their play, "The Speed Trap."

Thomas Mueller played the leading role as Roger Maxwell, who was running for office of state representative. He was sponsored in the election by rich and influential Mr. Coday, played by Ron L. Erickson. Donaleen Kramer as Mrs. Maxwell tried vainly to convince her husband not to run in the election. Their daughter Betty Lou, who tried so hard to keep up with the Codays, was portrayed by Nancy Bajula. Sharon Meekins as Suzanne Goday, finally invited Betty Lou to go on a trip to the mountains with her family. After much begging, Betty Lou was allowed to go. Kathy Kundek as Connie Maxwell played the role of Betty Lou's older sister. Connie wanted to attend a high class eastern school, although the Maxwells could not afford it. Connie's younger brother, Wilber, played by Bill Rasch liked to pick fights with Arthur Coday, played by Steve Adair. Mrs. Maxwell also had a hard time getting along with Mrs. Coday, portrayed by Sheri Christensen. The Maxwells went to so many political parties and meetings that they neglected their neighbors, the Davis', acted by Mike McDuffee and Louise Kissee, and Mrs. Allen, portrayed by Linda Vogt. After losing the election, Mr. Maxwell was elected as mayor of the city, and his family won back their friends.

The play was directed by Mr. Skogen, assisted by Marlene Olson and Jean Gadway.

Bill Rasch and Steve Adair "enjoy" one of their many fights during the play.

Marlene Olson, Mr. Skogen, and Jean Gadway found that arranging scenery for the play was one of their many duties.

Miles Doughton (Jim Hallas) gives Meg Wheeler (Lana Pomerleau) a few helpful hints about life in New York City.

Taney Barclay, Mike Raymond, and Ray Elwell set the stage for the play.

Ask Any Girl!

This year, the Senior Class Play, a light-hearted comedy, Ask Any Girl, entertained its audiences during the matinee for the student body in the afternoon and the evening performance for the public on May 1, 1963.

The story takes place at a New York girls' hotel. Meg Wheeler, played by Lana Pomerleau, is a small town girl who is eager for a life of her own in the big city. She registers at the Madison Avenue Girls' Hotel where she meets the other guests: Ada, Jeanine Lively; Lisa, Mary Schaefer; Ruby, Jan Clark; Heidi, Mardee Fieldman; and Jeannie, Linda Hautala.

The girls make a bet that Meg will eventually be like them, jobless, dateless, and bored. However, Meg surprises them by taking a job offered her by Evan Doughton, the playboy brother of Miles Doughton, business head of D and D, a well-known advertising agency. Terri, another resident of the girls' hotel and Miles' secretary at D and D, helps Meg to land the job working for Evan.

Meg finds that her job is hard work and, worst of all, Evan only thinks of her as an occasional date. Meg would like very much to marry and settle down, but Evan has no such ideas. The Director was Mr. Del Nowatzki.

In the end Meg marries Miles, Evan's older brother, which pleases Meg's whole family.

Various Plays Spark the School Year

1962-63 was a big year for plays. In February the Thespians did "Balcony Scene," a serious play centered around a funeral. The director was Mrs. Fezler. The same month "Chalk Dust" was sponsered by the Foreign Student Committee. This light-hearted comedy, directed by Mr. Nowatzki, kept everyone laughing. "Fixins," directed by Mrs. Hanson, was a serious play centered around a farm. This was Brainerd's entry in the district play contest.

National Honor Society Deserves Its Tributes

In the early spring the National Honor Society chose the final senior group of the 1963 graduation class and the first members of the Class of 1964 to join their society. Following this selection the initiation banquet was held April 22 at the Country Club. For the first time both the old and the new members were together. Part of the evening's program was the initiation pledge given by new members.

The qualifications for the National Honor Society are scholarship, leadership, service and character. In addition the candidate must be in the upper one-third of his class and must maintain a "C" average.

This year's officers were Paul Herrmann, president; Brad Martinson, vice-president; Jeanine Lively, secretary; and Karen St. Marie, treasurer. Advisors for the society were the guidance counselors, Mr. Randell McCune and Mr. Delmar Smith.

Honor Society officers Paul Herrmann, Jeanine Lively, Brad Martinson, and Karen St. Marie assume their responsibility of leadership for the coming year.

Hours of Studying Are Never Wasted

This year for the fourth time in the history of WHS, no salutatorian or valedictorian was named from the graduating class. Instead, the top four percent of the class are chosen as the 1963 Honor Graduates of Distinction. Eleven seniors qualified in this category. Twenty other students who maintained a "B" average or better throughout their three years of high school were the Honor Graduates. All of these students were recognized for their fine work and efforts on Recognition Day, May 15, and in the evening at the Honor Banquet held in the school cafeteria.

Warrior Gridders Place Second

Football coaches were D. Lagergren, J. Whiting, G. Hansen, P. Vrudny.

The Brainerd Warriors, hard-hit by the graduation of 16 senior gridders, nevertheless powered their way to second place in the final Central-Six Conference standings with a comendable 4—1 record. Their only conference loss came at the hands of a powerful St. Cloud Tech eleven, which finished in first place with a 5—0 record. The Warriors finished the season with an over-all record of 5 wins and 4 losses.

Three Warrior gridders, senior halfback Bob Dwyer, and junior ends Chuck Johnson and Jon Echternacht were selected for the All-Conference team. Chosen for the WCCO All-State Team-of-the-Week were senior fullback Jerry Lyscio, junior tackle Bruce Gross, and senior halfback Jerry Chisholm.

Rugged Bees Show Promise

Coaches Gene Hanson and Jack Whiting piloted the Brainerd Bees to an impressive record of five wins against one loss. The aspiring gridders overpowered St. Cloud Cathedral 17—12, squeaked past Staples 19—18, and then rolled over Little Falls 28—6, Aitkin 14—0, and Crosby-Ironton 32—13. Their only setback came at the hands of a rugged St. Cloud Tech eleven, a junior version of the Tech Tigers that mauled the Warriors, by a score of 0—7. A rugged defensive team held the opposition to a total of only 56 points, while the offensive unit tallied 110 points. If their fine play is any indication of the future, Brainerd fans can look forward to some rugged football next year.

District champs Jim Borg and Don Gunderson, with Coach Jezierski.

Under new head coach George Jezierski, the Warrior wrestling team opened the 1962-63 season with an impressive 31—14 win over Fergus Falls, which set the stage for a very fine season. The grapplers powered their way to a season record of nine wins and three losses. In the District 24 meet, held at Brainerd, Don Gunderson and Jim Borg won berths in the Region 6 tournament by virtue of their victories. At Alexandria on February 23, Jim took third place honors in the regional. The entire team showed a good balance of power and sportsmanship throughout the season.

Desire and Ability: Keynotes of Champs

Assistant Coach Bob Miller and Head Coach Fred Kellett.

Under the direction of veteran coach Fred Kellett, the 1962-1963 Washington High School Warriors combined a fast-breaking, high-scoring offense with a tight man-for-man defense to compile a very commendable 16—2 regular season record. The team averaged 65.4 points per game, while holding the opposition to a 54.3 point average. With a 9—1 conference record, the Warriors edged out Crosby-Ironton to claim the Central 6 Conference championship. Intramurals Promotes Friendship

The 1962-63 basketball intramurals, under the direction of Mr. Engbretson and Mr. Lagergren, attracted about eighty boys. Four teams were organized at the Harrison school by captains Larry Albers, Chester Gatchell, Paul Herrmann, and LeRoy Sandstrom; Jim Boileau, Jim Menz, Dennis Selisker, and Dave Strand captained the Whittier teams. Each team played a seventeen-game schedule, with the final standings determining tournament pairing. First round games of the tournament saw Harrison eliminating all four Whittier teams, Paul Herrmann's team went on to overpower Chester Gatchell's 37—32 in the final game.

Mike Engelhart goes high for two points.

Golfers Place Second; Revived Netters Win

Led by sophomore Mike Lund and junior Bob Bloom, the Warrior golf team started slow but came back strong to finish second in the District 24 golf meet at Staples. Little Falls edged Brainerd for first place, 255—261. For the Warriors, Lund finished with 82 points to capture medalist honors, while Bob Bloom had an 89. Both advanced to the Region 6 golf meet. Dale Thorsen coached the linksmen.

Under new coach Jack Whiting, tennis was brought back to the scene at WHS this year. Like the links team, the tennis team started slow, losing the first match of the year to Wadena. Paced by junior Tom O'Neil, they outpointed Wadena 5—4 to win the District 24 tennis championship and advance to regional competition.

Track Promotes Sportsmanship

Coaches Paul Vrudny and Dick Lagergren time 880-runners.

With over forty boys vying for positions, the Warrior track team had no shortage of manpower this year. In their first meet of the season, an invitational at Staples on April 19, Brainerd was edged out by Staples, 60—64; Crosby-Ironton was third with 24. For the Warriors, Bruce Gross won the shot put; John Runberg took first in the mile; Ron Scrimshaw, Paul Herrmann, Jerry Chisholm, and Ron Erickson won the 880 relay; Steve Gottsch won the pole vault; and Frank Nader won the discus. With a team built around this nucleus, Coach Paul Vrudny and Assistant Coach Dick Lagergren looked for a fine season.

Warriors Capture District 24 Title

Head Coach Kermit Aase.

The 1963 Warrior baseball team, under the direction of veteran coach Kermit Aase, overcame adverse weather conditions and very talented opposition to compile a season record of 6 wins and 2 losses. The tribe upset perennial champion Little Falls 6—0 to capture the Central Six Conference championship in the final game of the regular season. Brainerd hurlers gave up only eleven runs in eight games, while Warrior batsmen collected forty-six runs. Jerry Lysico, Fred Kellett, Jr., Fred Larson, Mike Engelhart, and Tom Dahl shared the pitching honors while Brad Martinson and Chuck Johnson alternated behind the plate. A strong hitting team, the Warriors also utilized an air-tight defense to stifle the opposition. On May 31, Brainerd shut out Staples 4—0 to win the District 24 baseball title and the right to advance to regional play.

Brainonian Members Strive for a Good Book

Sounds of laughter, a typewriter, and occasional groans would identify the Brainonian Office. Almost every night after school the office was very busy. Mad dashes being made to the candy and pop dispensers, located in the Pow Wow office, could be observed nightly.

Deadlines being made, met, and forgotten all added up to much work and fun. This year the staff was led by Linda Hautala, editor-in-chief, with Mr. Fox, editorial advisor and Miss Adams, business advisor. Heading the several individual staffs were Jean Brittany, copy; Kristi Anderson, layout; Kathy Houle, pictures; Rick Anderson, photography; Pat Freeman, index; and Muriel Berg, head typist.

Early in the fall the Brainonian staff chose "After Thoughts" for its theme. Their work the remainder of the year revolved around this decision.

During Christmas vacation a skating party and coke party was held at Linda Hautala's home.

A very successful year was ended with the distribution of the 1962-1963 Brainonians late in the summer.

Through the advisorship of Mr. Fox and Miss Adams, the Brainonian staff was aided in many ways.

The Choirs Bring Listening Pleasure

During the year the three choirs at Washington High perform on various occasions under the direction of Mr. Curtis Hansen.

The a cappella choir began early in the year with two fall concerts combined with the Alexandria Choir on October 22 and 29. On October 22 the Brainerd Choir journeyed to Alexandria for an evening concert. The 29 of October brought the Alexandria Choir to Brainerd for a repeat concert. Both choirs agreed these concerts were valuable experiences.

All three choirs took part in the annual Christmas Concert presented to the public on December 15 and 16. The theme was "Thy King Cometh." Some of the songs presented were old familiars such as "Auf Dem Berge," "Silent Night," and "Beautiful Savior." Christmas songs sung in Danish and German added something special to the performances. In addition to the concert, the a cappella choir had a rewarding time in Duluth when they taped a television show which was broadcast on Christmas Day. An afternoon performance over KLIZ was broadcast live from The First Federal Building. The choir also sang for the Elks Memorial Service and for the Episcopal Tea.

The Choirs were led by Mike Englehart, President; Carney Shipman, Vice-President; and Kay Kunde, Secretary-Treasurer.

A midwinter concert, the choir contest held in Brainerd, and the Mass Concert in which all school musical groups in Brainerd participated, highlighted the winter's activity.

The choirs, to raise funds, operated a concession stand at all home football games and sold magazine subscriptions in the fall.

The a cappella choir took a weeks trip in the spring. The Spring Concert and graduation ended the year for choir students.

They Believe in Democracy

The Student Council helps govern the student body and promote school spirit. It also is a governing seat over the class cabinets. Presiding over the meetings are John Ebinger, president; Georgia Benson, vice-president; Donaleen Kramer, secretary; and Dave Elbert, treasurer. Standing committees were Penny Roberts, welcome committee, Karen St. Marie, projects committee; Mike Engelhart, dance committee; Barb Sather, public relations; and Jim Hallas, sales committee.

The Homecoming slogan, submitted by Diana Johnson, was "Make the Gobblers Hobblers." Floats were entered in the parade by various school organizations.

The variety program, "Ship Shape Show," was held on February 13. The members were unified by the theme of an imaginary visit to many countries through chorus groups, instrumental selections, and skits from all over the world.

The Student Council open meeting, on January 24, gave the student body a chance to ask questions regarding school matters.

A leadership clinic, to be sponsored for the new officers of all schools clubs and stressing parliamentary procedure and general leadership, is scheduled for the fall of 1963. Pat Doboshinske is general chairman for the clinic.

They Promote Friendship Abroad

The Foreign Student Committee, led by Brad Martinson, chairman; Karen Aase, vice-chairman; Jean Brittany, secretary; and Kay Kunde, treasurer, helped make the year a success.

Highlights of the Committee's activities included the Carnival held in the fall which the royal couple, Mary Schaefer and Butch Dyvik, reigned, and Foreign Student day in March.

"Chalkdust," one-act musical play, was presented to the student body in February.

The F.S. Committee, advised by Miss Kay Torgerson, was proud to have two foreign students at W.H.S. this year. Poul Laursen from Denmark and Ferial Baboo of Malaya spent the entire school year here.

Foreign student day was one of the big projects for the committee. Another project was the tag day held May 4.

They Become Acquainted with Various Methods of Teaching

Future Teachers of America began the year by attending a convention in St. Cloud on the teaching profession.

To acquaint members with the various phases of teaching as a profession is the purpose of F.T.A. Members also serve the school in various capacities during the school year. For example, during American Education Week, the F.T.A. aided elementary school teachers by taking over or assisting with classes while parent-teacher conferences were being held.

Some of the other activities of the F.T.A. were a dance and the party which was held in February.

Future Nurses Serve Their Community

Under their advisor, Mrs. Hilda Vergin, the Future Nurses of America performed many services sponsored by the club members.

At the Foreign Student Carnival this year the group sponsored a candy booth. The nurses club also assisted in community drives by collecting money for the polio and Red Cross funds and by selling Christmas Seals. By helping in the preparation of the Mantoux tests and immunization clinics, the future nurses gained experience for their life work. The girls' Thanksgiving project was the distribution of many food items to Brainerd's needy families.

To raise funds for the club, the Future Nurses had a candy sale during the noon hour.

A service which these girls provide for the school by giving up their study halls, is the supervision of the health room.

The finale of the year was a trip to a school training hospital for nurses in Minneapolis.

Debate Produces Fluent Speakers

Washington High debaters fought both negative and affirmative this year on the topic: "Resolved that the United States should promote a Common Market in the Western Hemisphere."

The enthusiastic debaters spearheaded a drive to raise money by selling Warrior pom-poms during the noon-hour and after school. The receipts helped finance National Forensic League pins and also to pay for their spring picnic.

The debaters played host to the Paul Bunyan Invitational Debate Tourney on January 12. The District N.F.L. trophy, awarded for the most accumulated N.F.L. points, was by the A-squad. Placing second in the Regional Debate Tournament made it possible for Brainerd to go to the State Tournaments at the University of Minnesota.

Their annual spring picnic, ended a busy and successful year for the debaters.

Members of the 1963 squad were Tom Fitzpatrick, Jean Gadway, Barb Sather, Cheryl Olson, Dave Lindburg, Nancy Bajula, Jim Bedard, Donaleen Kramer, Chris Benton, Kent Richey, and Jim Cragen. The debaters were again coached by Mr. Norman Arverson.

At the debate convention, Tom Fitzpatrick and Jean Gadway discuss some of the highlights of the day with other debaters.

Each member was asked questions pertaining to the subject being discussed, thus giving a better understanding of local, state, and world affairs.

Led by President Paul Herrmann, Vice-president Poul Loursen, Secretary Kathy Falkenhagen, and Treasurer Kay MacLeod, the club sponsored a booth at the Foreign Student Carnival and a Penny Drive. Proceeds of both activities were given to the Foreign Student Committee.

With their advisor, Miss Mostrom, the club met every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:00, at which time discussions were held. A few of the more interesting topics discussed were the legal driving age in Minnesota, the Congo and Yemen crises, and the Canadian election.

An added feature for the group was a visit by a member of both the young Democrats and young Republicans. These leaders gave talks and answered questions brought forth by the members.

Main project of the year was an original play written by Mick Toumi, directed by Marilyn Brusseau, and presented before the entire student body on April 17. The skit involved the Presidency, with Bob Gole playing the role of the President of the United States.

The annual Pot Luck Supper was held at the beginning of the year at the home of Kathy Falkenhagen. The year ended with a picnic for the club members at Old Crow Wing Park.

The Pow Wow Keeps

Donaleen Kramer, Carla Anderson, Paul Herrmann, Charlie Cummins, Karen St. Marie, Leslie Thornburrow and Jeannie Lively carefully examine a Pow Wow story before giving it an O. K.

Keeping the head typists busy are Karen Aase, Margie Wilson, and Mary Schaefer while Barb McKay and Mary Wagnild willingly begin to type.

The Pow Wow, our school newspaper which was published bi-weekly, provided excellent up-to-the-minute news for the students at W.H.S. this past year.

The staff, besides publishing the paper participated in many other activities. For example, they sponsored a Christmas gift drive in order to provide gifts for the patients at the State School and Hospital. In addition the staff took an active part in the Foreign Student Carnival by operating the lunch counter and the golfing range. Combined with three other organizations, they donated money to be used for the purchase of 1963 class rings for Ferial and Poul, our foreign students.

The "Hat Hop," featuring prizes for the largest, smallest and funniest hats, was also sponsored by this group. A Pow Wow vs. Brainonian basketball game also added variety to the school year.

Students Informed

An additional activity of the school paper, the Pow Wow Radio Show, was aired each week over the local radio station KLIZ. The radio show consisted of two interviews, timely sports events, and news around Washington High. The announcers were Carla Anderson and Paul Herrmann.

Under the keen supervision of Miss Rudd and Miss Torgerson, the paper proved to be a success. Student editors were Robin Thompson and Jim Johnson. There were two editors per page, an ad director and a business staff.

The Pow Wow was thoroughly enjoyed by many students of Washington High as it kept them informed about the events in W.H.S.

Dan Svendson, Dave Lindberg, Brad Martinson, Dwayne Peterson, Jim Hallas, Sue Gerrard, and Pam Sundberg look begrudeingly at all the work before them.

Band Members Enjoy All Types of Music

Through daily practice and individual sectionals, the members of the band increase their appreciation of music. The band marched for the Homecoming game and for other football games, met Santa Claus when he arrived in Brainerd, and performed at all home basketball games. The band also played for Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises.

The band sponsored a cake walk at the Foreign Student Carnival, and sold boxes of candy, and magazine subscriptions to raise money.

Under the direction of Mr. D. C. Campbell, the band played at the annual District Band Festival in Aitkin on February 9. They participated in many programs for school and played an outdoor concert at the First Federal Building on May 24.

The end of the year brought the long-awaited trip to Minneapolis. The Memorial Day Parade closed the school year for the band.

B. Martinson, B. Lee, M. Wolleat, B. Sather, F. Rademacher, J. Marchel, and M. Raymond all agree that practice makes perfect.

Lettermen Learn Sportsmanship

A turkey banquet held in the school cafeteria, started the year for the Warrior Lettermen's Club.

An innovation this year was the "blazer" project which will carry over into the next few years. Bearing the Warrior emblem, navy blue blazers, which are to be worn by the lettermen on game days and trips, will be purchased with organization funds. The jackets will remain from year to year as the permanent property of the club.

Sponsoring one or two elementary students at Legionville is an annual project of the lettermen. If our basketball or wrestling teams are not participating in the respective state tournaments, the players and wrestlers are sent as spectators at these events in the spring by the club.

A steak dinner for the members marked the conclusion of a successful year.

Future Farmers Excell in Agriculture

The Brainerd Future Farmers Chapter attempts to teach its members the meaning of the word "charitable." They donated many gifts to the State Hospital for Christmas. Camp Courage, for physically handicapped children and adults, received a donation of twenty-five dollars from the F.F.A. The organization tries to promote rural leadership and assists and interests students in farming or related fields.

First place was won by the local chapter with their education booth at the State Fair. All officers attended the District F.F.A. Leadership Meeting in Motley, October 4. Kansas City, Missouri, was the meeting place for the National F.F.A. Convention on October 9-12, which was attended by six Washington High seniors.

Guest speakers at the annual F.F.A. Banquet were Roger Gernandt, President, and James Josephson, who had just returned from the F.F.A. good-will tour of Europe.

National Future Farmers of America Week, February 17-22, was observed by displays, radio advertising, and posters.

They Appreciate Good Homemaking

To the F.H.A.er's their goal to promote appreciation in homemaking was well met this year. In October a District Meeting was held in Sebeka. At this meeting the girls gathered many new ideas which were put to good use during the remainder of the year.

Installation of officers was held early in the fall with the following girls chosen as leaders: Pat Austin, President; Joan Kleinschmidt, Vice-President; Sandra Soderman, Secretary; Rosemary Anderson, Treasurer; Mary K. Clough, Historian; Terry Zahratka, Parliamentarian; Shirley Johnson, Publicity; and Bonnie Lewis, Song Leader.

F.H.A. is not all work and no play, however. A combined F.F.A. and F.H.A. dance during the winter, a Mother and Daughter banquet, and baking cookies for the State Hospital were additional activities sponsored by the group. The advisor was Mrs. Mueller.

A correctly served meal is demonstrated by M. Chisholm, S. Britton, P. Lindberg, S. Paulson, and B. McKay.

P. Austin, President, receives some advice in future homemaking from S. Johnson, Publicity; D. Baakkonen, Campgirl; Parliamentarian T. Zharatka, Song Leader; B. Lewis, and Secretary S. Soderman.

Marty Halvorson receives his official membership into Thespians.

Thespian officers are: Donaleen Kramer, junior representative; Jean Brittany, secretary; Georgia Benson, scribe; Carla Anderson, president; Jon Murrow, vice-president; Bill McDonald, treasurer; Mrs. Fezler, advisor; and Mary Schaefer, senior representative.

Thespians Pursue Dramatics

Thespians, a national organization, is composed of students active in dramatics. New members are selected through a point system. Points are earned by acting, directing, or being on a stage crew member for a play, by participating in skits and pantomines, or by working on the radio show. Initiation of new members was held in mid-February.

In January the Thespians produced the one act drama, "Balcony Scene," for the student body and for the Exchange Club.

Officers this year were Carla Anderson, president; Jean Brittany, secretary; Bill McDonald, treasurer; and Georgia Benson, scribe. Guiding the group in its various activities was Mrs. Fezler, speech and English teacher.

They Excel in Journalism

Quill and Scroll, an honorary society for high school journalists, is fairly new to students at Washington High School. Chosen by the advisors of Pow-Wow and Brainonian, the members must show outstanding ability in journalism. They also must be a member of either organization for at least one year.

Officers for the year were Gary Brumberg, president; Linda Hautala, vice-president; and Kay Kunde, secretary-treasurer.

To bring in new members, an initiation was held in the school cafeteria.

Advisors were Miss Ruud and Mr. Fox.

Cheereleaders Arouse

With their cheers, the W.H.S. cheerleaders arouse school spirit in the crowds at football and basketball games. If there is booing or other unsportsman-like behavior, the cheerleaders do their best to quiet these unnecessary noises. During the year, posters bearing the slogan, "Sportsmanship Supports the Team," could be seen all through the halls to again stress "good clean sports."

Georgia Benson does a back-breaking jump at the end of a cheer.

"We're from Brainerd, couldn't be prouder," shout the cheerleaders.

The A-squaders ask the crowd if they're all set.

School Spirit

The cheerleaders spent many hours at noon and after school preparing new cheers for the games.

White sweaters, each decorated with a large warrior's head, and winter white culottes could be seen on the "A" squad cheerleaders.

The "B" squad cheerleaders wore royal blue sweaters with a large "B" on the front and also winter white culottes.

Miss Frances Hedner advised both the A and B-squad cheerleaders.

"Victory is our cry!" insist the B-squad cheerleaders.

"Make the Gobblers Hobblers," the homecoming slogan was used on the float entered by the club in the homecoming parade. At the Foreign Student Carnival, the club's booth was named "Latin Club Beauty Shoppe."

At the Christmas observance the Latin Club sang carols in the halls. The melodies were familiar but the words were in Latin. Dorothy Holmes was in charge of decorating the festive Christmas tree which was located on the stair landing.

A banquet was held in the spring with the Franklin Junior High Latin Club invited to attend. These members were to serve the W.H.S. club and to act as servants throughout the banquet. This was planned to remind them of the Roman way of life. Grape juice served to represent wine and Latin foods were on the menu. A program was presented by the Senior High club as entertainment for the evening.

German Club Promotes Interest

Under the capable leadership of President, Sheri Christensen; Vice-President, Tessie Bisson; Secretary, Ron Albers; and Treasurer, Tom Toumi, the German Club has established pen pals in Germany for the club members, managed a carnival store for the Foreign Student Carnival, and won first prize with their float entry in the homecoming parade.

With their advisors, Mr. Lee and Mr. Herrmann, the club members saw slides which Mr. Herrmann had taken while on his tour of Germany in the summer of 1962. The club also subscribes to various German magazines for their personal interest.

During the school year, the club sold candy one noon hour in the halls and the members attended a private party at which they skated and enjoyed themselves.

The aim of the organization is to promote a better understanding of Germany for the members of the German Club.

Visual Aids Show Informative Movies

Knowing the mechanisms of projectors is part of the duty of Visual Aid Members.

The purpose of the Visual Aids Club is to supplement material given in classes with informative movies.

At the time of showing movies, the members gained the responsibility of reporting faulty equipment and taking care of all parts of projectors, films, and screens.

Members of the voluntary Visual Aids crew were headed by Larry Robertson under the advisorship of Mr. Clifford Veronick.

Ending a year of valuable service to W.H.S. the Visual Aids crew had a picnic with the Traffic Patrol.

Francis Koering sees that a group of W.H.S. students are led safely across the street.

David Waltz and Warren Holsapple, as officers, led the Traffic Patrol through this year.

The Traffic Patrol Provides Safety

As a service organization, the Traffic Patrol guided students safely across the streets at the busy intersections in front of W.H.S. Our school boasted of a clean record with no serious accidents. We owe a debt of thanks to these responsible boys in the Traffic Patrol for this. On many occasions the weather was cold and stormy, but the group did its duties.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Bob Miller, the Traffic Patrol boys learned responsibility and leadership. The officers for 1962-1963 were David Waltz and Warren Holsapple.

To show their appreciation for a job well done, The American Legion sponsored a dinner and movie for the members of this fine organization.

G.A.A. Members

"Fit and Free in 63" was the slogan this year for the Girls' Athletic Association. The organization is open to all girls who are interested in a program of sports and recreation. Regular intramural tournaments are held throughout the year in team, dual, and individual sports.

This year the program was divided into three sections. One sophomore group met Monday noons and another group, Tuesday noons. The junior-senior G.A.A. met Tuesdays after school. Myra Brittany was chairman of the Monday G.A.A.; Dena Vollmer, the Tuesday meetings; and Minna Luther, the junior-senior G.A.A.

Physical, mental, emotional and social abilities were stressed for total fitness. The girls were confronted with strenuous body training through the use of such equipment as the trampoline, horizontal bars, ladder, parallel bars, and the "horse." Acquiring advanced skills in basketball, volleyball, and softball were phases of the program. Individual and recreational games such as badminton, archery, table tennis, and bowling were also included.

Various sports days and play days are held each year with Crosby-Ironton and St. Cloud. Other towns in the surrounding area also participate.

Two trips were made to Crosby-Ironton by bus. Participating towns were split up into teams for basketball, volleyball, ping pong, shuffleboard, and other games. After lunch was served to the girls, skits were presented by each participating town. More games were played in the afternoon and awards were presented to the winning teams. These activities provided an excellent way for the girls to get acquainted with neighboring organizations and become familiar with their schools.

St. Cloud invited fifteen girls from the school's G.A.A. to participate in an all-sports day March 2. Swimming, basketball, relays, and volleyball were some of the sports played.

They Will Be Our Skilled Workers

Led by advisors, Mr. Miller, Mr. Haglin and Mr. Olson, along with President Brian Olson, Vice-President Duane Hart, and Secretary-Treasurer Russ Ebert, the club completed their second year at W.H.S. They built rostrums and performed many other odd jobs for the teachers.

A main project was a trip to the Twin Cities to visit various places of industry. They also visited the Northwest Paper Company and the campman Sash and Door Company in Brainerd. Meetings were held the second Wednesday of every month during the school year. To close the year the Industrial Education Club held a picnic.

By acting as helpers in the library, the members of the Library Club have served Washington High School in many ways. Their various duties included checking books in and out, circulating magazines and visual materials, numbering and filing new books, and keeping all books in order. They also repaired damaged books.

The Library Club added a festive touch with many appropriate holiday displays around the library. To take a break in their willing servitude, they went on a fall picnic in September and another one in the spring.

The officers were President Linda Vogt, Judy Yager, vice-president; and Secretary-Treasurer Lyn DeRosier. Advisors to the Library Club were Miss White and Mrs. E. Iverson.

F.B.L. Members Promote Good Business Methods

An unusual type of school organization, The Future Business Leaders work diligently to reach their prescribed goals, which are to provide wholesome individual and group recreation, to encourage democracy in the home and in the community, to promote cooperation among fellow employees, and to achieve success and leadership in a special field of work.

During the mornings, the group attends classes in retail selling, business English, and occupational relations; during the afternoons, they learn by working at their individual jobs at various business places in Brainerd.

The F.B.L. participated actively in the Foreign Student Carnival by managing a candle shot. They also furnished a float for the homecoming parade. On February 8, 1963, they sponsored their annual Queen of Hearts Dance at which Allyn Krueger was chosen Queen of Hearts and was presented with a box of candy and a beautiful corsage.

Steve Harting and Dick Kleinschmidt were chosen to attend the District Convention on November 1, 1962.

On March 28 the entire class attended a convention in Rochester, Minnesota, where they participated in competitive activities such as selling and typing.

The club was under the leadership of Tom David, president. He was aided by Mardee Parker, vice-president; Leola Krueger, secretary; Carole Johnson, treasurer; Kathi Cahoon, historian; and Dick Kleinschmidt, parliamentarian. Advisor was Mr. Madsen.

Ron Erickson, Barb Sather, and Jeff Kolodge perform an experiment.

Chemistry Club Performs Experiments

To increase knowledge in chemistry and to understand the importance of chemistry in our everyday lives were the purposes of the Chemistry Club. Various experiments in the laboratory were carried out and movies were seen at meetings every two weeks. Members took an educational trip to the Northern Pacific Shops to see chemistry at work in industry.

Highlight of the year was their trip to the St. Paul State Science Fair this spring. Advisor was Mr. Kramer.

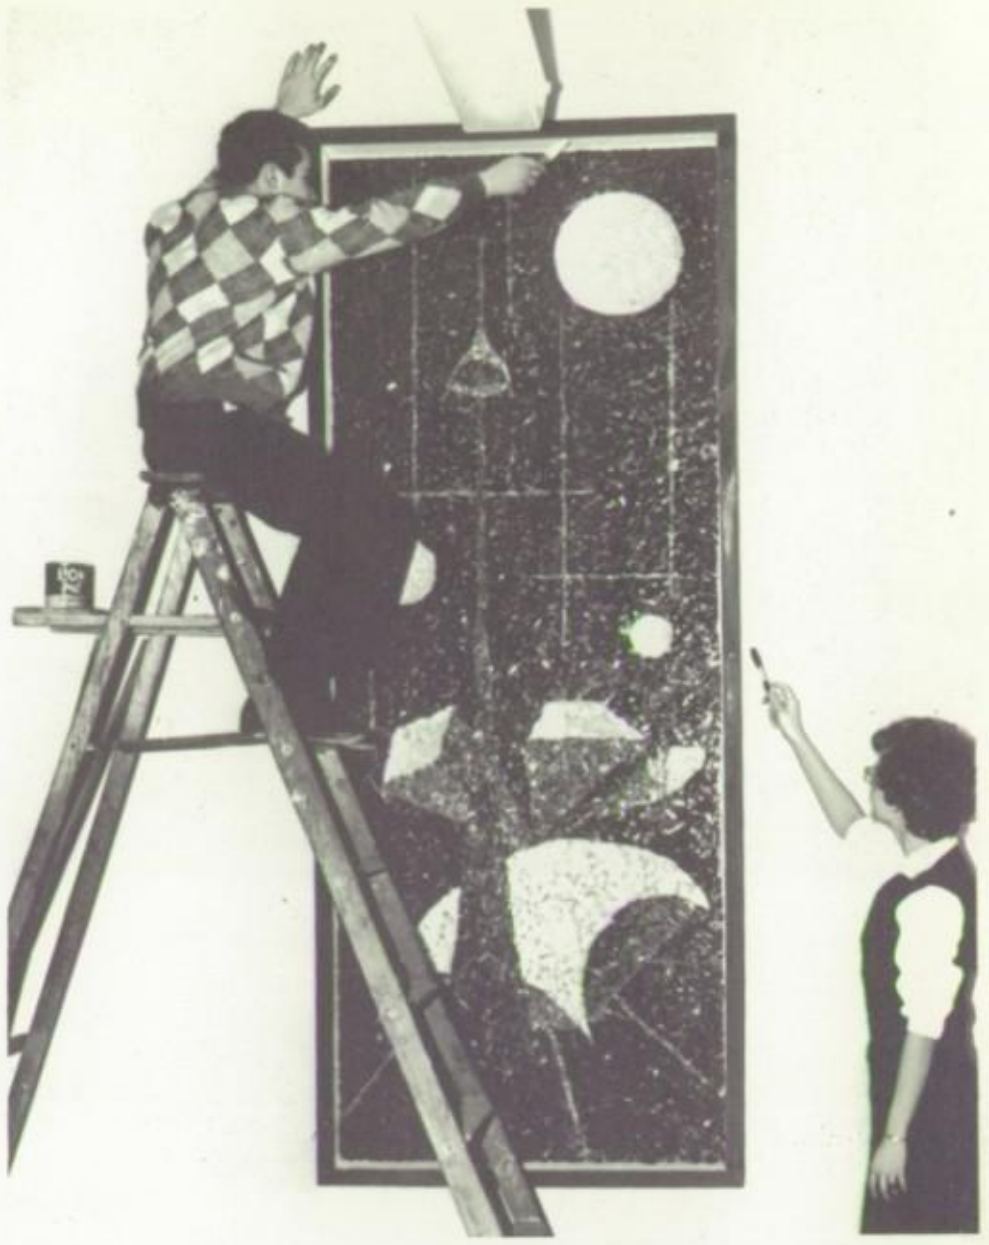
Art Club Undertakes Interesting Projects

By attending meetings on every other Monday night throughout the school year, the Art Club members managed to complete many interesting projects. The large glass mosaic of the Seattle World's Fair Space Needle, which had been made by the 1962 art students, was framed and hung in the hall at the southwest entrance.

Although their main activity was sponsoring the Christmas dance, they also painted several scenic backdrops for the programs of other groups, operated a portrait sketch booth at the Foreign Student Carnival, and won third prize for their horse-drawn float in the homecoming parade.

The club encouraged art students to enhance their interests and talents in art outside of the class by visiting an art gallery in Minnesota and by creating original designs in Christmas cards and selling them in the school and the community.

Carla Anderson was president; Jeannine Lively, vice-president; Helen Zahn, treasurer; and Ron Scrimshaw, secretary. Mr. Bordwell was advisor.



Mike Guritg and Carla Anderson put the finishing touches on the "Century Twenty-one" project.

Seniors

Seniors come and seniors go,

Some are special, some unknown,

But all remember . . .

Pleasant memories, good friends

dominate.

Other times, forgotten friends,

Just a memory to smile at.

It was the greatest year.

Good Things Must Come to an End

Many seniors agree that all good things must come to an end. Although we have many fond memories of homecoming events, football and basketball games, tournaments, the prom, school clubs, and our friends, we realize we have the whole future ahead of us. We won't soon forget our sophomore days of being lost or the day we got our long awaited class rings.

Leading the Senior Class are capable officers, John Ebinger, president; Paul Herrmann, vice-president; Dianna Johnson, secretary; and Linda Hautala, treasurer. Miss Winters and Miss Larsen served as advisors.

Graduation was an event of mixed emotions. We are sad to leave some of the best days of our lives, but we are happy that we have had the opportunity to attend such a fine school.

Class advisors, Miss Larsen and Miss Winters check over the senior class name cards.

Linda Hautala, P. Herrmann, J. Ebinger, and D. Johnson, the class officers, prepare for a cabinet meeting.

IT'S BEEN A WONDERFUL YEAR

Juniors

We have been led and have followed

Through the year.

It will only be a memory.

For tomorrow we shall lead.

Juniors Show Their Ambition

The Junior Class, led by Jim Keprios, president; Andy Kokesh, vice-president; Kathy Jo Kunkel, secretary; Penny Roberts, treasurer; and Mr. Engebretson and Mr. Mark, class advisors, took part in a variety of activities during the year.

The juniors, faced with the responsibility of sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom, started the year with several successful money makers. The hot potato sale, held at the Brainerd-Bemidji football game, a noon hour candy sale, and the very successful Junior Class play "Speed Trap" brought in more than enough funds to sponsor the Prom.

For the Foreign Student Carnival the juniors managed the Basketball Throw. Tyra Parson and Ron B. Erickson were nominated for the junior king and queen candidates.

The year came to a close with an informal class party and the Prom.

Leading the junior class are: Jim Keprios, president; Andy Kokesh, Vice-president; Penny Roberts, treasurer, and Kathy Kunkel, secretary.

Advisors Mr. Mark and Mr. Engebretson give their "look of approval" to prom decorations.

Sophomores Undertake New Projects

The Sophomore Class was under the leadership of Gary Getty, president; Colleen Palmer, vice-president; Mary Hansen, secretary; and Ken Dagel, treasurer.

Their first project was Homecoming. Being that the Homecoming slogan was "Make the Gobblers Hobblers," the cabinet made a turkey float out of President Getty's 1939 chevrolet coupe.

Dating took an about-face during "Twirp Week." Monday, Mary Hansen was in charge of clash day. Tuesday was dress-up day headed by Joe Dwyer. Wednesday a group of sophomore girls shined boys' shoes. Thursday, a bake sale was held, and on Friday the highlight of the week, the "Twirp Dance" was held. Ron Hart was in charge of arrangements for the dance. Balloons were also sold on Thursday and Friday. Throughout the week girls were seen carrying books, opening doors, and helping boys with their coats.

The class members also served at the Junior-Senior Prom, and, carrying out the old tradition, the class cleaned the gymnasium after the prom.

Advisors of the class cabinet are Miss Joyce Hippe and Miss Wilda Miller.

Helpful class advisors are Miss Wilda Miller and Miss Joyce Hippe.

School Board members Ray Madison, Birney Wilkins, Mrs. L. O. Hart, Clarence Lepinski, Wayne Huso, and Mrs. Bea Ross look into some interesting facts concerning our school system.

Administration Mai

J. A. Sater goes about his daily work as Supertintendent of Schools.

Mr. J. A. Sater, completing his sixth and final year as the Superintendent of Brainerd Schools, contributed much to keep things running smoothly in our school system. We had another successful school year in Brainerd through the leadership and concern of Mr. Sater.

Mr. Adamson, our Principal, has a large range of duties. Although he sees that we have high academic standards, Mr. Adamson also advocates extracurricular activities and various auditorium programs throughout the year. He also has the "pleasant" task of issuing tardy pases, attendance passes, and taking care of disciplinary problems.

The students of Washington High are very fortunate to have such a complete Guidance Department. Our two counselors, Mr. Smith and Mr. McCune, give us help with our problems concerning our present education or our future careers or vocational choices. When there are aptitude tests or other tests to administer, the counselors fully explain these tests to the students.

The school board consists of Clarence Lepinski, Wayne Huso, Bea Ross, Lois Hart, Ray Madison, and Birney Wilkins. These members take care of such necessities as provision of textbooks, purchasing library facilities, and directing school lunches and evening classes. One of their most important duties is to employ teachers, custodians, and cooks. They also offer new elective courses for students to take.

Mr. Adamson converses with a parent before signing an absentee slip.

History Acquaints Students with World Developments

Mr. Lagergren helps his history classes learn the states by pointing them out on the map.

Through the study of history, students become more aware of world developments which are shaping the future. The chronology of history takes on new meanings other than dates to be learned for a test. Because the students of today will be the leaders in our country tomorrow, an understanding of the historical backgrounds of our country and other countries of the world is necessary. As sophomores the students study world history; juniors learn about American history; and the seniors take social studies, which is concerned with world affairs both past and present.

Mr. Nowatzki erases an old lesson from the board before starting a new one.

Since all other subjects and learning are based on our ability to read and comprehend, a good understanding of English grammar fundamentals and a background in worthwhile literature can be a very valuable asset during our lives.

At Washington High School this part of the language arts program commonly called "English," is divided into two areas of study — grammar and literature.

In grammar by learning to punctuate and capitalize correctly, to recognize good sentence structure, and to identify parts of speech, we gain the ability to express ourselves more effectively and correctly both in writing and in speaking.

Literature is made more meaningful and interesting to us in class discussions through films, and by our teachers. Each year throughout our high school, we begin to appreciate more fully a great variety of poetry, plays, essays, and stories.

A foundation for a future career can easily be found in science.

The development of reasoning power and the ability to concentrate are strengthened in biology, chemistry, physics, and natural science classes.

Biology students learn fascinating and interesting facts about both animal and plant life. Chemistry is the study of matter and its transformations due to the effects of energy. Through laboratory experiments and research, students learn the answers to many puzzling questions. Physics is a more detailed course dealing with the changes and properties of matter and energy.

Today the importance of science can not be stressed enough. The courses offered in the Science Department at W.H.S. make the students realize the importance of science.

Speech, Languages Prove Valuable

LOWELL E. LEE
B.A., (Concordia College), English, German.

Progress through practice is the emphasis of speech work. Development of more effective oral communication is learned in speech classes. Other techniques such as parliamentary procedure, impromptu speaking, and discussion are obtained through the speech course.

Foreign languages included two progressive courses of German and three of Latin. Objectives of these language studies are a better understanding of English grammar, appreciation for other peoples customs, and, perhaps, a desire to take up a career in foreign languages. Languages are also valuable for college preparation. Courses of this type are intended for foreign service, foreign travel, and personal satisfaction. Stories, songs, and tales in the languages are read and discussed.

The school library is equipped with information on subjects of all types. Books, pamphlets, and newspapers are classified and filed for the exclusive use of students and the faculty. The librarian and assistant librarian are aided by helpers in maintenance of the library.

Physical Education, Mathematics Develops Physical and Mental Strength.

MERVIN JENSEN
B.S., (U. of M.), Driver Training, Physical Education.

Mathematics is an important entry on the schedules of many students since it plays a vital part in the work of every science. Mathematics, in its various branches, is even more important in our daily lives. Today we use mathematics every time we look at the clock or the calendar. Whenever we shop and then add the bill, we use mathematics. If we were not taught how to use numbers to the best of our ability, our modern way of living would not be possible. Mathematics is the tool of all other sciences. In some sciences, such as physics, it is fundamental. Even the social sciences use many of the techniques of mathematics. Students at WHS are able to expand their knowledge of mathematics in many directions. They can take different forms of geometry, mathematics, algebra, vocational math, and trigonometry.

In W.H.S. only sophomores take physical education. The physical education program includes tumbling, gymnastics, competitive sports, and swimming.

Extensive learning opportunities are offered to Brainerd students in the fields of vocational training. Since many students begin their careers immedately after high school graduation, the school offers varied courses of study useful to the students' vocations. The business program offers classes in retail selling, occupational relations, bookkeeping, typing, consumer mathematics education, stenography and notehand, office and clerical training, business law, and on-the-job training. Home economics courses prepare students to be efficient homemakers.

MELVIN OLSON
B.S., (Bemidji State), M.A., (Colorado State), Industrial Arts.

CLAYTON HAGLIN
B.S., (St. Cloud State), Architectural Drawing, Driver Training.

The Industrial Arts include general metals, woodworking, architectural drawing, and small engine mechanics. General metals covers welding, machine shop, and sheet metal while woodworking broadens knowledge of wood fabrication. Architectural drawing develops abilities in construction and is a boost to any student going into engineering drafting. Small engine mechanics, a new course, offers varied information on small gasoline engines.

Three progressive art courses offer basic fundamentals in the creative field which may encourage students to enter art as a career. Skills such as sketching, sculpting, painting in water colors and oil are learned as well as history.

Band, choir, and rudiments of music are the centers for music appreciation and improvement of skills instrumentally, vocally and musically.

The cooks, who provided excellent meals throughout the year, are Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Britton, Mrs. Larson, Mrs. Langer and Mrs. Krueger.

They Help Run the School in Various Capacities

The secretaries at WHS, Mrs. Vi Carlson and Miss Jil Holman, performed many duties for the teachers, administration, and student body during the year. For example, Mrs. Carlson types many of the teachers' tests and performs a great variety of tasks for them while Jill Holman takes care of attendance records and also handles lunch ticket sales. Much well-deserved praise is due these two people who do many of the "odd jobs" at our school.

Janitors and cooks also keep students and faculty happy with their clean school and excellent meals.

Mr. McKee, Mrs. Holden, and Mrs. Josephs serve as assistants to Mr. Sater, the superintendent.

Jill Holman and Mrs. Carlson, the office girls, perform countless duties for teachers and students.
